Re: Second Antidumping Duty Administrative Review of Certain
Frozen Warmwater Shrimp from Brazil and China (2006-2007):
Respondent Selection and Requests for Verification

Dear Secretary Gutierrez:

On behalf of the Domestic Producers¹ in the above-captioned administrative reviews, we hereby submit requests for verification of mandatory respondents to the U.S. Department of Commerce (the "Department"). Consistent with 19 C.F.R. § 351.307(b)(1)(v)(A)(2006) and (b)(2), Domestic Producers are submitting a written request that the Department verify factual information submitted by respondents to the Department in the administrative reviews the agency is currently conducting with respect to imports of certain frozen warmwater shrimp from Brazil and China.²

¹ Ad Hoc Shrimp Trade Action Committee ("Domestic Producers"). The Committee is a domestic interested party to this proceeding.

Verification is necessary to ensure that the responses to the Department's questionnaires are true, fair, and accurate representations of the respondents' business activities in the United States and various third countries.

Further, in response to the Department's June 6, 2007 memorandum to all interested parties providing a "final opportunity" to comment on the Department's intended respondent methodology,³ Domestic Producers note that they have no substantive comments with respect to the respondent selection methodology employed in the second administrative reviews of shrimp from Brazil and China. In both cases, only a very small number of companies have reported shipments of subject merchandise in response to the Department's quantity and value questionnaire.
